SECTION A

1. General

1.1. The present General Terms and Conditions ("GTCs") are divided in different sections. The headings merely serve to facilitate orientation and clarity, and are otherwise legally non-binding. Each section contains general provisions which apply to all contractual relationships. Further separate provisions regarding Driving Experience events and the Hospitality area are possible and shall apply to these areas in this version as derogating from the general provisions; should these provisions contain gaps and/or if no separate rule exists for the given area, the general rule shall apply. If a matter is not regulated in these GTCs, the rule most favourable to PS shall be deemed agreed. Where separate (participation) conditions are published for an event or a legal relationship (for instance, on the back of admission tickets or on the Internet website of PS), these shall apply where they contradict the present GTCs or govern derogations herefrom, otherwise these GTCs shall also apply. The GTCs do not exclude any special agreements.

1.2. By your written, electronic (internet, facsimile) and/or telephonic registration for an event you accept these General Terms and Conditions (GTC). This also applies in the event that something to the contrary is provided for in the customer's general terms and conditions and the customer no longer expressly objects to this in the following. PS does not accept any deviating general terms and conditions or general terms and conditions of delivery or similar of third parties.

1.3. The GTCs are available at <https://www.projekt-spielberg.com/de/service/agb> and can also be downloaded or printed. We will provide a printed version upon request. In addition, the GTCs are available for prior inspection in the business premises of PS, where customers can book services of PS on site. The respective version as amended at the time of the signing of the contract shall be relevant.

1.4. In the case of an ongoing business relationship, later orders, including oral ones, shall be deemed placed under these GTCs even without a separate reference thereto.

1.5. The contractual services of PS will result only from the respective service specifications for the corresponding event as these are available upon signing of the participation contract. Individual arrangements, amendments or additions to a contract, to these GTCs, or other agreements, shall only become an integral part of the contract and effective if they are expressly confirmed by PS in writing. Unilateral amendments or additions by third parties are invalid.

1.6. In case of doubt, a contract shall be deemed created by implication as a result of the participation in an event; the same shall apply to these GTCs.

2. Signing of contract / Order by customer

2.1. General

2.1.1. The contract shall be created by the submission of an offer by the contract partner / customer and the acceptance by PS or vice versa. The acceptance of offers by PS shall be valid only if these are submitted in writing. Any oral orders placed by PS must be confirmed by the contract partner in writing within 5 working days. As of the written confirmation, PS shall have the right to withdraw from the order within 5 further working days, without stating any reasons and without thus establishing third-party claims.

2.1.2. Notices of defects must be made in writing immediately not later than within 2 weeks and must be justified accordingly. Where possible, defects in technical or other installations provided by PS will be removed immediately; Payments cannot be retained or reduced unless PS is responsible for such defects.

2.1.3. All prices are gross prices; Net prices must be designated as such; where appropriate, the value-added tax will be shown separately on invoices.

2.1.4. If the customer uses additional services extending beyond those indicated in the offer, the customer will be charged for these additional services.

2.1.5. The following applies to B2B: Any offsetting of claims by PS against counterclaims of any nature whatsoever is ruled out (offsetting prohibition).

The following applies to B2C: As part of a consumer business, the customer may offset only in the event of insolvency of PS or in connection with legal claims, court-established claims, or receivables recognised by PS.

2.1.6. PS is entitled to withdraw from the contract on objectively justified grounds, for example if:

- Force majeure or other circumstances not attributable to PS render impossible the performance of the contract;
- Events are booked stating misleading or false information on essential facts, for instance on the

- customer or the purpose;
- PS has good reason to believe that the events may compromise the smooth business operation, the safety, or the reputation of PS or Red Bull in the public eye, without this being attributable to the sphere of influence or the organisational area of PS;
- There is a violation of these General Terms and Conditions;
- The operation of PS requires this, for instance due to retrofitting/construction measures, unforeseeable delayed setup/breakdown of large events, and the like.
- A justified withdrawal by PS does not give rise to any damage claims by the customer.

2.2. Driving Experience

- 2.2.1. Upon registration you bindingly offer us completion of a contract regarding your participation in the respective event ("participation contract"). You may register in writing, orally (on site) or on the phone (telephonically, by facsimile or internet). Registration is effective also for all participants mentioned in the registration, you assuming liability for their as well as for your contractual obligations.
- 2.2.2. The participation contract shall be deemed as effectively concluded only after you received our written confirmation; registrations on site will be confirmed or refused immediately. If the content of the registrations-confirmation deviates from the content of your registration, we did not accept your booking, but we offer you completion of the contract at conditions deviating from the registration.
- 2.2.3. If the customer himself acts as event organiser of a motorsports event at the Red Bull Ring or at individual facilities, the offer signed by the customer will become legally binding upon receipt by PS, though an additional user agreement must be concluded with regard to the respective facilities.

2.3. Hospitality

- 2.3.1. The customer's order shall become legally binding upon the signing of the offer of PS by the customer and its delivery to PS.
- 2.3.2. The offer of PS shall be based on the number of participants stated by the customer. Should the number of participants change compared to the offer (a reduction of not more than 10% compared to the offer shall be free of charge), the customer must notify PS thereof in writing not later than four days before the first day of the event (time of receipt not later than 6.00 pm CEST). If such notification is not made in time or at all, charging will be based at least on the number of participants stated in the offer. If more participants than those indicated in the offer take part in the event, PS will charge the customer based on the number of participants actually determined by PS, which will be binding for the customer. If the number of actual participants exceeds the one indicated in the offer, PS does not guarantee that enough food and beverages can be provided for the extra number of people taking part in the event. If the number of participants is below the one indicated in the offer, charging will be based on the number of participants indicated in the offer.
- 2.3.3. Customer is obliged, at the latest upon conclusion of the contract, to truthfully inform PS as to whether an event is likely to compromise the smooth business operation, the safety, or the reputation of PS and/or Red Bull GmbH in the public eye.

3. Payment conditions / Charging:

In the event that the period between the conclusion of the contract and the beginning of the event is less than 14 days, 75% of the total remuneration shall be payable and will be invoiced directly upon conclusion of the contract. PS reserves the right to demand payment of the remaining 25% of the agreed total remuneration prior to the beginning of the event and, where appropriate, request the presentation of a payment confirmation prior to the beginning of the event. Any remaining amount and all other additional payments that may arise after conclusion of the contract will be invoiced upon final settlement after the event and will be payable without deduction immediately upon receipt.

- 3.2.2. The following applies to B2C: The participation fee must be transferred to the bank account indicated by Projekt Spielberg GmbH & Co KG not later than 14 days prior to the beginning of training, or paid directly at the Driving Centre or at the information counter, otherwise Projekt Spielberg GmbH & Co KG shall be entitled to withdraw from the contract. 4. General conditions

The rules of operation, available on the Internet at <https://www.projekt-spielberg.com>, must be observed and complied with at all events on the Red Bull Ring, including those staged in cooperation with PS.

- 4.1.1. The use of an unmanned machine with a maximum kinetic energy of 79 joules/a model aircraft/an unmanned air vehicle from Class 1 (according to the Federal Law on Aviation (=LFG)) is prohibited on the entire area of the Red Bull Ring.
- 4.1.2. Animals, especially dogs, are not permitted on the entire site of the Red Bull Ring, unless
- these are assistance dogs, that is, accompanying dogs for people with physical and/or mental disabilities,
 - or PS has expressly allowed dogs at the event;
 - in both cases, the dogs must be muzzled and kept on a leash. The owner of the animals brought to the event must take out a public liability insurance for these.

4.2. Driving Experience events

- 4.2.1. Only persons who have signed the participation form (available under www.projekt-spielberg.com/en/service/general-terms) shall be entitled to participate. The participants acknowledge that records made by the security-monitoring cameras on the Red Bull Ring are electronically stored and processed and that – if required – they will be used for the detection of criminal acts, accidents, damage and/or other comparable incidents. The recordings will be deleted by PS after a certain period of time. PS may demand appropriate guarantees from participants to cover possible damage (deposit, insurance, etc.).

- 4.2.2. The road traffic regulations (StVO) shall apply to the facilities of PS). Exclusively persons holding a valid driving licence respectively a valid licence for the relevant class are entitled to participate in an event as drivers. The driving licence shall be presented upon registration on the course day before the event begins. If no valid driving licence is submitted we shall be entitled to withdraw from the participation contract without substitution. Registered escorts may be taken along in the vehicle after execution of the participation form and express approval of the instructor.

- 4.2.3. During the entire event the StVO and the rules of operation shall be observed and in the interest of your own safety of others the instructions are to be followed. In case of gross infringements of these rules and/or instructions participants – without being entitled to repayment of the course fee – may be excluded from the event. PS reserves the right to announce rules derogating from the national road traffic regulations, which will apply exclusively to the race track.

- 4.2.4. During the entire event alcohol and drugs are strictly prohibited. Each participant has to be in a physical and mental condition appropriate for participation. We reserve the right to exclude participants with regard to whom there is reasonable suspicion that they are under the influence of (residual) alcohol or drugs or any other impairment, which could obstruct safe participation, from the entire or parts of the event, without repayment of the participation fee.

- 4.2.5. All events are held in German. If your knowledge of German does not suffice we advise to call in a translator at your own costs or an escort having sufficient knowledge of the German language. For safety reasons PS reserves the right to exclude participants not provided with sufficient knowledge of the German language from the event. As soon as linguistic understanding of the instructions of the instructor is guaranteed, the course can be made up for at a later time.

- 4.2.6. A participation with the own vehicle shall be allowed only, if the vehicle provably is authorized for road use and is in a roadworthy and reliable condition, in particular meets the relevant legal and technical provisions and a valid liability insurance. Exceptions are possible upon a separate agreement. We reserve the right to check vehicles with regard to their technical condition and if need be to exclude them from the event. There exists no entitlement to a replacement vehicle.

- 4.2.7. You are responsible for the roadworthiness of your vehicle yourself and you have to provide for appropriate insurance cover. On the part of PS there exists no separate vehicle insurance cover for the participants and their vehicles during the event. PS points out to the fact that the vehicle liability insurance of the participants' own cars usually does not apply to timed rounds, and that damage caused in connection with timed drives is not covered by the vehicle liability insurance.

- 4.2.8. If the participant is not also the licensed owner of the vehicle used, the participant shall submit a written declaration of consent of the licensed owner, otherwise he/she will be excluded.

- 4.2.9. Pursuant to the Styrian Event Law both PS and the respective participant are obliged not to exceed legally fixed maximum noise levels. We expressly reserve the right to check the sound power of the single vehicles with a calibrated mobile sound level meter and to exclude participants from the event whose vehicles exceed the maximum values. In case of such exclusion the participant shall not be entitled to any claims what so ever against PS. In particular participation fees will not be refunded.

- 4.2.10. If PS provides a vehicle for participation (rental fee according to the respective service description) the participant accepts the respective vehicle and will treat it with care.

4.3. Hospitality

- 4.3.1. If individual products cannot be delivered for any reason whatsoever, PS reserves the right to replace the products mentioned in the offer with at least equivalent products, in particular to replace the vintage in the case of bottled wines. PS reserves the right to change prices accordingly. Complaints (with regard to quantity or quality) must be reported immediately after the event, otherwise they will be presumed groundless and relevant rights will be lost.

- 4.3.2. If the customer himself acts as the event organiser, and if events in connection with Hospitality require any official registrations or permissions, the customer himself shall be responsible for obtaining these and must fully indemnify and hold PS harmless against any claims of third parties in this respect. The customer is also responsible for the registration and payment of a music performance. The customer shall fully hold harmless and indemnify PS in this respect.

- 4.3.3. The customer must at his own responsibility manage the required formalities and payments with the responsible institutions in connection with music performances and public address systems arranged by the customer himself.
- 4.3.4. Any of the customer's exhibits and other items, including personal items brought to the event premises and to the site of PS will be at the customer's risk. PS does not accept any liability for loss, destruction, or damage, including financial loss, except in case of gross negligence or intent on the part of PS.
- 4.3.5. Any decorative materials brought to the premises by the customer must comply with the relevant fire safety regulations. PS is entitled to request an official proof of this. Due to the risk of damage, setting up or affixing any personal items is subject to prior consultation with PS.
- 4.3.6. The exhibits and other items brought to the event must be immediately removed after the end of the event. PS may remove and store any items left behind at the expense of the customer. If their removal entails a disproportionately large effort, PS may leave the items in the event rooms or in the event area, and will charge the corresponding room or stand rent to the customer for the time these items remain there. The customer reserves the right to furnish evidence of smaller damage and PS the right to furnish evidence of greater damage.
- 4.3.7. Packaging material (cardboard boxes, cases, plastics, etc.) used in connection with the supply of the event by the customer or third parties must be disposed of by the customer before or after the event. If the customer leaves behind packaging material on the premises of PS, PS shall be entitled to dispose of the material at the expense of the customer.
- 4.3.8. As a rule, the hanging, installing, or the like of advertising material on the premises of PS shall require the prior written approval of PS. In specific cases, PS shall be entitled to demand a fee from the customer for the presentation of such advertising material.

The Data Privacy Policy of PS is available at www.projektspielberg.com.
- 5.1.2. The participant/customer accepts the rules of operation by signing the statement of participation whereupon he agrees that during the event records of his person in picture and sound may be made and may be used without temporal or local or objective restriction in any present of future media (e.g. TV, internet, data carriers, print) in any form or as often as desired, without him being entitled to any financial benefit resulting therefrom.
